Scientists On Verge Of Creating Plant People (Astonishing Information on Genetic Engineering)

QUESTION:

There is a story in the July 1, 1980 of the National Enquirer which appears to confirm some of Dr. Beter's more bizarre revelations on robotoids and it related to creating plant people. I'll read some of the article.

"In a world-shaking breakthrough that will forever change life as we know it, scientists reveal that they are on the verge of creating an astonishing race of plant people.

These bizarre creatures, a cross between humans and plants, will become our pets and slaves, doing anything we want—including think. And as incredible as it sounds, one scientist in the U.S. has already made it a partial reality—by successfully fusing the cells from a woman with those of a tobacco plant

The image of a breed of plant people is really quite awesome," the story says, "but it is within our grasp already and could be a reality within 5 to 10 years," declares Charles Panati an eminent researcher, physicist and author of a new book on coming breakthroughs in science.

"Excited researchers say that plant people will work in factories and on farms and they'll pick fruit and walk for miles to find the best soil and climate, they'll serve as soldiers capable of firing bullet-like seeds with deadly force, and can operate as human spare-part kits, sprouting arms and legs for use in transplant operations, produce their own gasoline-like fuel then fill up our vehicles at service stations, run by plant people", and so forth and so on. I'd like Awareness to comment on that article, please.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the field of genetic engineering as that which has already been explored very deeply. This Awareness indicates that many such explorations have already created certain unusual creatures. That much of what is vaguely described here has been accomplished during the past decade. This Awareness indicates however, that the specifics of certain aspects of this article as being somewhat fictionalized or fantasized. This Awareness indicates, however, that the plausibility of such as not being so totally remote as it might seem. This Awareness indicates that this article barely hints at the potentials of these genetic engineering activities.

Scientists are Moving Into the Dangerous Primitive or Basic Levels of Godhood Like the Elohim

This Awareness suggests, however, that there is much danger involved in such activities, and that those who involve themselves in these studies must be carefully watched, must have great understanding and wisdom, lest they create creatures which develop as destructive forces. This Awareness indicates that, essentially, these entities as moving into the primitive or basic levels of Godhood; that the Elohim as having been involved in such experiments millions of years previously. That there are similar creations occurring throughout the universe.

This Awareness indicates that, essentially, there has been some guidance from outside sources in the discovery and understanding of genetic engineering upon the earth plane. This Awareness indicates that this as an area which must be moved into with great care and great understanding. This Awareness indicates, however, that in one sense, this may also be of great value as it allows those minds which would be fascinated with the toys of destruction to delve into toys of creation.

Creating Toys of Destruction Must Not Occur

This Awareness cautions that entities be most aware and careful to avoid creating destructive toys in these genetic engineering programs. This Awareness indicates already this has moved in these directions, and there is a more rapid movement in the technological fields than in the development of humanistic and spiritual understanding.

This Awareness suggests that entities who move too quickly in extending their destructive and creative capabilities without having the consciousness which is able to understand the awesome power with which they play, this as dangerous indeed. This Awareness indicates this likened unto entities giving dynamite or other even more potential weapons of destruction to the childlike mind for its toy. This Awareness suggests that there indeed needs to be a greater understanding of The Law of One, The Law of Unity, The Law of Love before entities move too far into these areas of genetic engineering. This Awareness indicates, also, that in particular The Law Of Mercy must reign supreme.

Did Russia Participate in These Experiments?

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION (AVATON):

Did those Russian entities who developed the robotoids and the synthetics experiment in this area before these creatures were developed?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that, essentially, these developments came from different directions. The synthetics being brought forth through the Alien Force and technology; the robotoids being brought forth from the technology and influence of that known as Galactic man, or the Galactic Confederation. This Awareness indicates that these as being well understood in other galaxies and other cultures which have been involved in the genetic manipulations for eons of time. This Awareness indicates that the Old Testament story of Jehovah as but an earlier recording of such genetic manipulations.

These Creatures Have a Rudimentary Soul and Spirit

This Awareness indicates that, essentially, these creations have but a rudimentary soul and spirit within them, but do have the potential for growth and development. This Awareness indicates these creations, essentially, however, will be created, will eventually die and the soul-stuff shall dissipate or be devoured by other soul-stuff for other purposes.

This Awareness suggests that entities must understand that not every creation has a fully developed soul. This Awareness indicates that the magnetism, which is the holding factor of a soul, is based largely upon identification as a center; and this identification as a center develops over long periods of time, through much intensity, much suffering, much experience, much joy and much development.

The Soul Develops Like the Pearl Develops in the Oyster

This Awareness indicates It has previously given the analogy of the pearl developing in the oyster from the grain of sand which enters and irritate the flesh, creating the gradual development of the pearl. This Awareness indicates that, likewise, the soul develops the creation, the creature, through its continued irritation and disturbances with the forces of life which it encounters. The dissonance in its experience creating frustrations, and also pleasures and enjoyments, and these build a more centralized and magnetic field about the being, which then is the strengthening of the soul factor.

In Many Cases Entities Have Not Yet Fully Developed a Soul

This Awareness indicates it has been given, "What shall it profit to gain the whole world and lose one's soul?" This Awareness indicates that in many cases entities have not yet fully developed a soul, and therefore, the effort by these entities is to continue working to develop their being. This Awareness indicates that in other cases, there are souls which are old and ancient and have been around for many, many eons of time.

This Awareness indicates that it may be understood, also, that there are certain plants and animals who have rudimentary substance which vibrate and corresponds closely to those which may be associated with the soul-stuff. This Awareness indicates that, essentially, the synthetics and robotoids have very elemental souls, barely traceable. This Awareness indicates, however, that these creatures do have spirits as do certain vegetables such as trees, plants and other living creatures.

Spirit Is Ever Present In Living Creations

This Awareness indicates the spirit as that which is ever present in living creations. The soul being that which develop in part from the intensification, the magnetism of spirit, whereby the spirit is drawn in closer and closer and tighter and tighter toward a central point; and that spirit being drawn in toward that point, becomes the rudimentary element which makes up the soul. The soul being essentially composed of a central core magnetic field which includes memory, whereas the spirit being that which is simply life force, aware of the existence of the moment.

Spirit and Soul Merge Into a Mystical Marriage

This Awareness indicates that spirit and soul do indeed merge together in a mystical marriage; that the spirit of the here and now and the soul, which reaches into past and future, depending on its depth and condensation-- the soul merging with the here and now create the field of energy which manifests in the substance, the nature and the expression of the creation. In some instances this may be a human being, it may be a plant, it may be an animal, it may be some other crossover.

This Awareness indicates the seed itself contains portions or vibrations of soul-stuff, the magnetic field which is capable of growing and developing by the continued merging with the spirit and, from its memory, can create the creature, whether it be vegetable, animal, or even mineral, in nature. (This Awareness indicates It briefly digressed from the question. That if the question was not satisfactorily answered, that this be re-asked again)

The Creation of Vegetable People

(There Are Such Creatures Living On Other Planets)

AVATON:

It was satisfactorily answered except for: Would the same rules apply to the creation of vegetable people that Awareness indicated previously applied to Robotoids?

COSMIC AWARENESS"

This Awareness indicates that the nature of that which which may be called the vege-man, or vege-person--this Awareness indicates there are such creatures living on other planets. This Awareness indicates there are such creatures living presently on the planet Venus. This Awareness indicates these creatures capable of existing in the atmosphere of Venus. This Awareness indicates, also, that these creatures have a higher sensitivity in terms of that which has been Extra Sensory Perception than most humans and, therefore interrelated with one another as a field of consciousness. This Awareness indicates that wherein, for example, one creature is destroyed, all others are aware of that action.

This Awareness indicates, however, that these creatures do not have the fear of being destroyed, do not feel terror in the same way as do humans who have greater sense, of separateness and little understanding of the sea of consciousness. This Awareness indicates as the majority of humans feel their consciousness to be enclosed within themselves, the tendency toward self-preservation is greater than in plants and other animals not so focused in self-centered concerns.

This Awareness indicates that these creations tend to recognize the life force as being their environment, their home, and the reality in which they exist. This Awareness indicates that they identify more with the water of life, than the matter of life; whereas the human generally tends to identify greatly with the material which holds the life force and seeks to protect and identify with that vehicle through which the life force expresses itself. This Awareness indicates this appears to be the greatest distinction between the different levels of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates it is for this reason that death for the majority of humans is a greater and more traumatic transition than for animals and particularly plants. That plants do have a slight will to live, but will give themselves up without struggle, without resistance, particularly if taken with an aspect and vibration of serving a purpose.

Using a Christmas Tree or Picking Flowers With Love

This Awareness indicates, for example, the difference between the tree selected to serve for a Christmas tree or the flower picked to express love toward another entity, this flower being so picked does not mind giving its existence for this purpose so much as would the flower which is simply chopped away in hostility because it is growing in the wrong place or because a bee touched the flower and the entity swatting at the bee, destroyed the flower. This Awareness indicates this kind of destructiveness toward plants is more traumatic for them when picked with love and used for a purpose of service.

This Awareness indicates likewise, those creations which can be made to understand through the vibratory rates, through that which is Extra Sensory Perception, those creations also respond in similar manner to the violations which they may be forced to accept. This Awareness indicates that wherein you pick fruit or eat vegetables and plants, that you recognize these as living entities who joyfully seek to serve you and be grateful to them. This Awareness indicates that this is their accepted purpose. This Awareness indicates that they move to their death with satisfaction at being eaten by humans who appreciate their essences.

Plants Devour Cast-Off Human Emotions, Thoughts & Energies

This Awareness indicates these essences then move into and merge with the human essences, and the entities who were in the plants then experience that human essence. This Awareness indicates the human also casts off emotions, thoughts and energies, which the plants devour. This Awareness suggests that wherein entities feel negative, hostile or frustrated, that they can disperse these frustrated energies, these negative energies, upon plants and ask the plants to transmute those energies, and when giving gratitude toward the plant for transmuting such energies, the plants will thrive and grow on those negative, frustrated energies.

This Awareness indicates, however, that wherein entities are hostile to the plant itself, this is not beneficial to the plant, and the plant will be harmed by such hostile energies. This Awareness suggests that the plants will transmute negative and hostile energies which are given to it, so long as they are not directed toward the plant itself, whereby the entity is hostile to the plant.

Ask the Plant to Take Your Energies and Transmute Them

This Awareness indicates that in giving such frustrated or hostile energies to a plant, this Awareness asks that you solicit the plant's assistance and ask the plant to take these energies from you and to transmute the energies. This Awareness suggests that when this occurs, you will feel better and the plant will also thrive on those energies. This Awareness suggests that after this has occurred, a mental statement of appreciation, an attitude of appreciation toward the plant is in order.

Genetic Engineering Could Obsolete Humans Soon

This Awareness indicates that, likewise, wherein genetic engineering incorporates the efforts to blend human qualities with plants, this can eventually create a new type of creature that is both extremely sensitive and intelligent. This Awareness indicates it is possible through this action whereby certain plant genes are incorporated into the human, that higher extra sensory development can be initiated into the human form to allow a greater sense of The Law of One, The Law of Unity. This Awareness indicates that in another sense, the human being as presently known may, in the not-too-distant future, become obsolete.

This Awareness indicates that, likewise, the next creation may become one which synthesizes its food and energy from the air, water, and light and may not need to devour other creatures for its being. This Awareness indicates that many entities in human, bodies today were at one time walking around in the bodies of dinosaurs and other similar prehistoric creatures. This Awareness indicates that in future times many entities in future bodies may look back on the human species as being an ancient, extinct creation that had strange ways.

This Awareness indicates that those who study outside appearances will never understand the nature of the dinosaur. Those who study outside appearances will never understand the nature of the human. Those who study the outside appearances will never understand the nature of the future creation. This Awareness indicates those who study Consciousness shall understand everything.

Created Vegetable Entities to Fight Wars? (How You Could End Up Being the Ruler of the Universe)

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

Awareness, in the example given in the article that these creatures could be used to fight wars, it would stand that the more animated and human qualities added to these vegetables, the more easy it would be to violate these creatures. Is that correct?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this depends on how an entity wishes to perceive the creation. This Awareness indicates that wherein an entity blends the hostile genes of a killer with the peaceful genes of a plant, which one is being violated?--for the offspring is a combination. This Awareness indicates it is not so much a violation of the offspring anymore than was the creation of any being who was born from another who is hostile or expresses hostilities. This Awareness indicates that the question being, what is the purpose and value of such creations whereby these beings are created to express greater hostilities, more hostilities, a greater number of hostilities?

This Awareness suggests, for example, assuming you could locate the most hostile being in the entire universe--the being which is most trained to express hostility toward others, the being which is the classic killer, such as, for example, having shark-like qualities and human-like hatreds and deep emotional drives ---to create some kind of being or to find a being which had all these attributes; and discovering that this being had umpteen-billion cells in his body, and that each of these cells was capable of being reproduced into another such creature, and that by creating all of these cells into that many umpteen-billion creations you could bring forth the army which would be invincible in the universe, and that the only thing necessary for you would be to add a gene which would allow you to have total control over these entities so that they would be obedient to you. Therefore, you find a plant or other creature which is loyal to you and introduce this gene to this creation and, therefore, you have created the being which will serve you, and have created umpteen-billion such beings, and therefore, you may set out to rule the universe.

This Awareness asks "what for?"

This Awareness indicates that even if you destroy all others or make slaves of all others, what is left for you? What have you gained? This Awareness indicates that even if you had all wealth in the universe, all gold in the universe, all knowledge in the universe: what good would it do you? This Awareness indicates all you actually need is to exist, be free, allow others to exist and be free, and to relate to others in ways which allow you all to enjoy your existence.

This Awareness indicates that the new toys of genetic engineering and creations must be accompanied and given only to those who have the wisdom to understand, or who can develop to that wisdom as the technology develops.

Far Advanced Entities Are Closely Watching the Toys Given

This Awareness indicates that regardless of how intelligent these children of genetic engineering experiments consider themselves to be, the universe is teeming with other being who are far, far advanced and are carefully and closely watching these toys being given to these scientists,-- not as their own discoveries (even though they may assume so), not for the purpose of allowing them to have greater power over others (even though it may appear to be such), not to give such entities the keys to Godhood, --but to educate these scientists. These tools being given as educational toys for their enlightenment and understanding, so that the materialistic scientist may gradually come to understand that which is beyond matter, in life itself, in the realms of magnetism, the realm of antimatter and the resonating electromagnetic energies,--those forces known as spirit, which are beyond the human senses and lie in the ocean of consciousness itself.

These Toys Are Necessary for the Evolution of Human Consciousness

This Awareness indicates these toys as necessary for the evolution of human consciousness so that it can recall where it was before it fell into toying-around with gross matter. This Awareness indicates the word man and mind are the same word in Sanskrit. This Awareness indicates mind or man began playing around with the creative forces and, in so doing, threw the forces out of balance and created extremes of matter; and many of the creations moved into bodies, identifying with physical matter and, in that identification, moved deeper and deeper into separateness and into the material plane. This Awareness indicates that it now begins moving back for those entities on the earth planet.

This Awareness indicates that other planets may be laggard, while still others are far, far advanced in comparison to the earth planet, just as civilizations upon the earth planet are miles and miles apart in their understanding of physics. This Awareness indicates there are entities upon the earth, who are ten-thousand years behind the rest of civilization. There are also entities upon the earth who are thousands of years ahead of others in terms of their development. There are entities upon the earth who are alien to this planet, who are highly advanced, who are likened unto deities in human form. There are, also, entities upon this planet who are barely capable of holding the human form together, for they are basically animal in their soul, and many such beings may, in fact, revert back to an animal body in the next incarnation.

This Awareness indicates that the life force is such that it flows on like a river. The eddies, the whirlpools, the ripples are the beings in that life force. Some have existed and exist in depth, others exist in only shallow and brief moments. This Awareness has indicated that billions of souls have been created. This Awareness indicates now, that likewise, trillions of potential souls exist.

A Soul May be Considered a Vortex of Spiritual Energy

This Awareness indicates that, essentially, a soul may be considered as a vortex of spiritual energy which spins as a kind of permanent magnetism, which collects its identity from the experience as it moves, likened unto a cyclone. This Awareness indicates this cyclone or soul of an entity is in the antimatter world, and can be destructive, powerful; or can be creative as it moves; or it can be weak and easily knocked off its course,--this depending on where it receives its energy, how much identification it has, and whether it tunes in totally to its own being and develops its greater potential.

This Awareness suggests that if you wish to intensify and create a stronger soul, then look within at the core of your being, focus on the core of your very being, and it will grow and develop stronger and shall thrive. This Awareness suggests that you need not seek your being through the energies of others, through the sapping of their souls, for your own soul grows only from the energy and attention which you give to it as you observe yourself in deep respect. This Awareness suggests you tune into your very own being, and in so attuning yourself, you feed the storm that is your soul, the cyclone develops within your being, and you become a greater magnetic force. This magnetism draws to you that which you need to develop even further, even faster, even greater as a soul.

The Eye of the Hurricane is the God-Seed Within You

This Awareness indicates that, essentially, you may consider the eye of the hurricane, the center of the cyclone, the center of your soul as being that God-seed within you; and therefore, focusing on the kingdom which is within, the God which is within,--this is that action which develops your soul growth and brings about the greater power of spiritual energies which are available to you.

Look Inward and Look Outward

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that how often entities have heard others say, "Look out." This Awareness says to you, "Look in." This Awareness indicates that as you look in, you find yourself expressing and giving forth those gifts which are yourself and becoming aware of that which is about you. This Awareness suggests that it is important to look both inward and outward; and that entities may look inward for their basic food to feed the soul, and may look outward for their understanding and for their expression of the soul. This Awareness indicates those who look outward for the food to feed the soul and look inward at their expressions are acting in a manner which is backward, and therefore against the universal flow.

Thank you. The Law of Gratitude is recited.

Three Human Clones in America Today? (Duplicating Oneself As a Form of Immortality)

QUESTION:

Lydia Karkut sent in a copy of a news story that appeared in the Globe, which is a tabloid, and some of the information in tabloids is doubtful to some entities, and I'm going to ask Awareness for confirmation on this story and whether it's significant in light of some of the Dr Beter information. I'll read part of the article:

"Three human clones are living in the United States. Three human clones are growing up in America today, claims medical expert. Harvard educated Alberto Logan Garcia says he has even cloned a 4th human in his Mexico City laboratory, though the mother miscarried. The geneticist says one of the surviving clones is that of a Central American Dictator, and another is a famous European musician. Science writer David M Rorvik claims the third is that of an unidentified millionaire. Two are boys, one is a girl, and all are under three years old. And though the clones will physically be exactly like their parents, the doctor says, they may grow up to be different because of their environment.

"He claims the cloning hadn't been revealed before because scientists don't want the public to know they are attempting to duplicate human beings. 'Its a very sensitive subject in the public's mind' Logan Garcia told Globe. 'The duplication of a human being in a laboratory without sexual union stirs up deep superstitious fear in the average person. People associate cloning with Frankenstein monsters, breeding a super-race and interfering with nature in an act that is supposed to be God's alone. Some scientists share these fears with the public but others are afraid public resentment towards such experiments will stop research funds.' The doctor adds, "All three of the successful clones are those of wealthy, powerful, or famous people. Duplicating oneself is a kind of immortality, and who doesn't want to live forever?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this article as correct and accurate in so far as it goes. This Awareness indicates that there are however, more than three such entities. This Awareness indicates that there are other laboratories and other places wherein this kind of activity is occurring. This Awareness does not see the necessity or appropriateness in exposing the locations of these places. This Awareness indicates however, this has been occurring for a number of years, more recently in the last four years, this has increased. Much work in secret along this line has been conducted outside of government control. This Awareness indicates however, prior to this, there were also ultra-secret activities along this and similar lines which were previously discussed in regard to the robotoids and synthetics.

This Awareness indicates that this also as not being limited to this modern time, but also as having occurred in prehistory on this plane, on this earth, and on other planets; that other information has been given previously regarding this.

Entire Families Are Made Into Synthetics?

(Advanced Technology Is Giving Some a Soul)

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

Would Awareness indicate, in those synthetics that are still being manufactured, like in the case of Dr Beter's latest revelation of the two astronauts on the space shuttle; if it is necessary that they also make synthetics out of the entity's family when this occurs?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this in the negative. This Awareness indicates that the technology in regards to this kind of action as that which has been improved greatly during the past several years, and references in earlier readings given by this Awareness, particularly that which was given in 1978, in the fall of the year; that this tape, this reading referring to synthetics, wherein it was indicated certain mannerisms, qualities whereby entities could spot the synthetic, such as the pocked or mottled skin, the inability to turn the head without turning the body, the difficulty these entities had in terms of eating, and certain other qualities such as the missing Adam's apple; this Awareness indicates that these deficiencies or characteristics are no longer as pronounced in present technological effects in creating these synthetics as was expressed during that earlier period.

This Awareness indicates that it now is much more difficult to distinguish these entities from the 'real thing'. This Awareness indicates that in terms of the Kirlian photography or aura-reading machines, which could distinguish robotoids from synthetics, and humans from either of these, This Awareness indicates that even these machines are not as accurate now as they had been previously in making such distinctions, for it is possible now to increase the size of the aura, or soul substance that inhabits these creations. This Awareness indicates that the newer technologies are capable of creating souls, or allowing souls to enter into these creations. This Awareness indicates therefore, the creations can presently be more closely considered as duplicates of humans rather than as a mere substitute, replacement, or replica. This Awareness indicates that although they are artificially created, they can be closer in actuality to the original than previously, and along with this, these creations also in receiving souls, are also capable of having greater opportunity for individual choice, or what may be termed Free Will, similar to that of humans. Even though they might have been programmed otherwise, the programming can be overcome by other influences apart from the original programming.

This Awareness indicates this information applies more to the robotoids than to the synthetics.

DO ROBOTOIDS & SYNTHETICS HAVE NORMAL SEX LIVES?

QUESTION:

Three or four members in the past have sent in this question which I'll ask now. (I hadn't intended to ask it, but it might help in understanding this phenomena). Do these robotoids and synthetics have a normal sex life? Are they capable of fathering children, in the case of a male synthetic; and in the case of a female synthetic, are they capable of having babies?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears in the realm of that which is moving more toward a possibility, but as of present time, this Awareness indicates that generally this as in the negative. This Awareness indicates however, the technologies which have been involved in the 'fine tuning' of this science, as that which is continually making new headway and breakthroughs whereby in some instances, certain possibilities may occur. This Awareness indicates that in terms of the earlier creations, these entities were not capable of reproduction, although to some degree, these entities were capable of sexual activity. This Awareness indicates however, this not in the normal degree of humans; that more likely this would take the form of complete abstinence.

This Awareness indicates that in terms of reproduction, this as having been negative in the past, but with new technologies, this as a possibility not yet effected, but which may not be far off in terms of this kind of expression.

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

Well, in the case of the astronauts' wives, for example, who are still human, then this sudden turnaround in the sexual activity on the part of their husbands; wouldn't this create a loophole, where they might get suspicious about their husbands?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in many cases, wherein the husband has been replaced by a robotoid or synthetic, often these couples will find their marriage going sour, and the entities will find themselves incompatible and unable to remain together. This Awareness reminds entities to glance back at many of those entities mentioned by Dr Beter and to notice that there have been in many cases where separations have occurred. This Awareness indicates however, in some cases where both partners have been duplicated, the situation remains such that the partners stay together. This Awareness indicates also, that not all arrangements would necessarily result in separation between the human and the duplicate.

This Awareness wishes to inform entities that it is easier to distinguish a robotoid or synthetic by words than by actually experiencing the presence of such an entity: for unless you somehow know the entity is a robotoid or synthetic, the mere meeting of such an entity would not necessarily give any impression other than that you were speaking to a normal human being. For these entities are flesh and blood and speak the same language and have thoughts and habits and patterns similar to those which they replaced; the mannerisms being coded into the genetics so that it would be nearly impossible to tell the difference. This Awareness indicates that those who can see auras, or have machines which can read the auras have an advantage, in that they can distinguish more clearly the human with its aura from the robotoid or synthetic whose aura is lacking or is very undeveloped.

This Awareness indicates as previously mentioned however, the new technologies are creating certain energies whereby these beings are even closer to human duplicates in terms of the larger aura and a rudimentary soul. This Awareness indicates that it may reach a point whereby the entity who was disincarnated may find his or her spirit moving back into the duplicate, inhabiting that duplicate; and those who destroyed the entity and replaced the entity with the duplicate may find that they have simply reinherited the same entity within their robotoid or synthetic, and the only apparent difference being that there has been some form of mental change which has occurred that may or may not be recalled by the inhabitant of the duplicate body, whereby that entity may not even recall having been destroyed, but may also be in part slightly affected by the new programming which was given to its new duplicate body. And the potential for this occurring could, in time, lead to a pointlessness in the process; whereby to destroy an entity, take the entity's cell and create a new substitute, would only bring back the entity who was destroyed into a new body which might then recall what occurred, and this entity turn against those who had destroyed the original.

This Awareness indicates that if the technology improves any further in regard to these creations, it can reach a point whereby it diminishes any advantage the technology might have had, so that the whole process becomes worthless and a simple act of brainwashing an entity would be more effective than creating a new physical body, destroying the old, and programming the new, only to find that the soul of the departed entity has re-inhabited the new.

This Awareness indicates these actions of manipulation in terms of life forces for military games, for political intrigue, as being gross error, and as being that which must find its repercussions to those who are perpetrating the continuance of these games which foster such intrigue that requires this type of manipulation. This Awareness indicates however, all of these errors are part of the grand design, and are allowed that entities may find the truth, and in that truth, return to the source and the Law of Unity, the Law of Oneness, by which all entities may find peace.

How to Discern a Duplicated Entity (Rattled Entities Whose Sentences Don't Track)

FOLLOW-UP QUESTION:

Awareness, it may have been the trait of the original Alexander Haig, but it seems to me every time I see this entity talking on television that his sentences don't track normally, that he seems rattled, and almost like it's a tape-recorded conversation. Is it possible some of these synthetics could reveal themselves through speech like this?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this in the affirmative. This Awareness indicates that synthetics generally are not as highly intelligent as the robotoids because of the different means of programming these creations. This Awareness indicates that these synthetic creations are programmed more in terms of that which is likened unto the use of brainwashing techniques or hypnosis, programming the entities with information while these entities are in states of receptivity. This Awareness indicates that the robotoids are programmed electronically with information that has been gathered by computer, using electromagnetic energies to implant the information into the consciousness of the robotoid. This Awareness indicates the robotoids having a much higher I.Q. than the synthetics.

This Awareness indicates however, the synthetics do have the capacity to live longer life-spans than the robotoid. This Awareness indicates the polarities of these creations are reversed from each other. This Awareness suggests that in transcribing this message that the last sentence referring to the reversed polarities not be printed.

THE NATION

Haig Named Illiterate of Year

Nov. 23 (NSIPS)—Secretary of State Alexander Haig was awarded the 1981 Doublespeak Award, bestowed every year by the 70,000-member National Council of Teachers of English.

The language educators cited Haig's exemplary usage of the English language, such as "caveat my response," and "saddle myself with a statistical fence."

The Secretary of State has been in Mexico City, attempting to strongarm the Lopez Portillo government behind his regional war plans for the Caribbean area. He brought the full power of his doublespeak talents to bear, warning that "the pace of the totalitarian blueprint (of the Nicaraguan government) had picked up recently."

Haig Wins Confusing Speech Award

BOSTON (AP) — Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr., given tongue-in-cheek credit for such fractured phrases as "careful caution" and "caveat my response," won the 1981 Doublespeak Award from an organization of English teachers Friday. Haig also has uttered such words and phrases as "epistemologicallywise," and "saddle myself with a statistical fence."

Haig edged out the Environmental Protection Agency and the Moral Majority in what the National Council of Teachers of English called language of "pernicious social or political consequences."

The Book "Final Judgment" (More on the Murder of JFK)

QUESTION:

We received a tabloid announcement from Vince Ryan, Senior Editor of the Spotlight, regarding a new book they've put out. I'd like to read a little of this and ask Awareness a question about it. He writes: "Dear Spotlight reader: I am pleased to announce release of what may be the most controversial book of our time. Entitled Final Judgment, the book exposes at long last the never before revealed role of Israel and its secret service the MOSSAD in the crime of the century.

Written by the Spotlight's own Michael Colins Piper, Final Judgment exposes how the CIA, the Mossad and the Meyer Lansky Crime Syndicate collaborated in the murder of John F. Kennedy.

What's more, Mike reveals never before published facts concerning a secret plan by the Kennedy family to move against the Federal Reserve money monopoly.

Mike explodes the myth that "The Mafia killed JFK. He shows that the real force behind the Mafia was Mayer Lansky, the crime boss who collaborated with both the CIA and Israel's Mossad. Final Judgment dissects the CIA/Mossad role in the Lansky syndicate's global drug racket. (Mike proves that Bo Gritz was right). The book also presents new revelations which show that the so-called "French connection" to the JFK assassination is, in reality, the Israeli connection. This is a real bombshell, and in an exciting closing chapter, Mike brings forth new material which links former President George Bush to the JFK conspiracy beyond other information known thus far."

It goes on and on, but would Awareness say that this information is basically valid, and the book should be...

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be a book with very well-researched facts and presentation in such a way as to tie together a number of facts into a scenario and theory that hits on truth. This Awareness suggests that entities who are interested in this kind of research should find the book extremely valuable and accurate in most of its concepts.

This Awareness wishes however, to make one statement in regard to the way by which this has been presented. It should be noted that the presentation of information relating to the MOSSAD is not necessarily a reflection on Jew in general, just as its representation of the CIA should not be noted as a condemnation of Anglo-Saxons in general or of any other groups in general.

This Awareness indicates the MOSSAD and the CIA are unique groups in their own way, and have their own history and purpose for being and it should not in any way reflect on the rest of the country which they represent, for often entities have no control over such agencies as these. Who among you can control what the CIA did in regard to the Kennedy assassination? Or who among the Jew can control what the MOSSAD may have done in this regard?

It is not to be used as an indictment against the Jews; that an agency such as the MOSSAD might be involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.

JFK Was About to Move Against the Federal Reserve

QUESTIONER (AVATON):

I thought the most interesting thing was, and I never heard about this before, the Kennedy family was about to move against the Federal Reserve money monopoly!

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is indeed new information that may interest many entities. This Awareness indicates the Kennedy family as being very much aware of what is going on in the world, and John and Bobby Kennedy in particular were very much aware of the connection between the CIA and Rockefeller and other banking magnates around the world.

"At the time, the book "Final Judgment" was priced at $20 and available from Liberty Library, 300 Independence Ave., SE, Washington DC 20003. However, since then the Zionists forced them out of business and they reopened under the name American Free Press, 1433 Pennsylvania Ave SE, Washington DC 20003. Phone: 202-544-5977.

Only Scratching the Surface

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates It has covered much information and yet has only scratched the surface. That there is so much involved in what this surface-scratching suggests that it may take months or years before entities begin to realize what the magnitude of these events are having or will have on this country.

This Awareness indicates that for entities to learn as much as possible, to explore, to read, to inquire, to research, will be of great benefit to them now and in the future. It is a very historical time, not unlike that of the time in which this country was first formed, in which freedom was first given a chance. It is still in a fragile state and entities must watch to be sure it is not snuffed out before it has had its chance to re-ignite the enthusiasm of the masses to a new America, based on the old energies that were begun by the founding fathers of this country.

SECRETS OF THE HUMMING DISCS

QUESTION (AVATON):

I have a series of books titled Out Of This World. They were published 20 or 30 years ago, and one has weird stories in it. There's one article I'd like to read a little of and ask Awareness if this is true, if it could elaborate on the subject. It's called "Secrets of the Humming Discs."

"For 20 years experts failed to decipher the strange writing on the stone gramophone records found in a mountain cave, but when the code was finally broken, they told a fantastic story of an invasion 12,000 years ago, by creatures from another planet. The discs were taken for further tests. It was then that they began to vibrate.

High in the mountains of Bayan-Kara-Ula on the borders of China and Tibet, a team of archeologists were conducting a very detailed routine survey of a series of interlinked caves.

Their interest had been excited by the discovery of lines of neatly-arranged graves which contained the skeletons of what must have been a strange race of human beings, strange because they had unnaturally spindly bodies and large, overdeveloped heads.

At first, it has been thought that the caves had been the home of a hitherto unknown species of ape. But as the leader of the team—the Chinese archeologist, Professor Chi Pu Tei—pointed out, "Whoever heard of apes burying each other?"

It was while studying the skeletons that one of the team stumbled on a large, round stone disc, half buried in the dust on the floor of the cave.

The team gathered round the discovery, turning it this way and that. It looked, absurdly, like a kind of "Stone Age gramophone record." There was a hole in the center and a fine, spiral groove radiated to the rim.

Closer inspection, however, showed that the groove was, in fact, a continuous spiraling line of closely written characters.

The object was a 'record'—in more ways than one. Only nobody at that time—the year was 1938—possessed the key to its incredible message. The disc was labeled and filed away among other finds from the area. Even those who knew of its existence knew nothing of its meaning.

Many experts tried to translate the hieroglyphs in the 20 years the disc languished in Peking. They all failed. It was not until another professor—Dr. Tsum Um Nui—broke the code and started to decipher the 'speaking grooves' that the extraordinary implications of the disc were realized. Realized, that is, by only a select few. The outside world remained in ignorance. For the professor's conclusions on the meaning of the disc were so shattering that they were officially suppressed. The Peking Academy of Pre-History forbade him to publish his findings.

Two years later, in 1965, the professor and four of his colleagues were finally given permission to reveal their theory. It appeared under the long-winded but intriguing title, The Grooved Script concerning Space-ships which, as recorded on the Discs, landed on earth 12000 years ago.

The 'records'—716 of the grooved discs were later uncovered in the same caves—told an astonishing story of a 'space probe' by the inhabitants of another planet which came to grief in the Bayan-Kara-Ula mountain range. The strange, spiral script told how many of them had been hunted down and killed by members of the Ham tribe, who lived in the neighboring caves.

According to Tsum Um Nui, one of the lines of hieroglyphs read, "The Dropas came down from the clouds in their aircraft. Our men, women and children hid in the caves ten times before sunrise. When at last they understood the sign language of the Dropas, they realized that the newcomers had peaceful intentions."

Another section expressed 'regret' by the Ham tribe that the aliens' spaceship had crash-landed in such remote and inaccessible mountains and that there had been no way of building a new one to enable the Dropas to return to their own planet.

In the years since the discovery of the first disc, archeologists and anthropologists had learned more about the isolated Bayan-Kara-Ula area. And much of their information seemed to corroborate the bizarre story recorded on the discs.

Legends still preserved in the area spoke of small, gaunt, yellow-faced men who 'came out of the clouds, long, long ago'. The men had huge, bulging heads and puny bodies and were so ugly and repellent that they were hounded down by local tribesmen on horseback. Strangely, the description of the 'invaders' tallied with the skeletons originally discovered in the caves by Professor Chi Pu Tei.

On the walls of the caves themselves archeologists had uncovered crude pictures of the rising Sun, the Moon, unidentifiable stars and the Earth...all joined together by lines of pea-sized dots. Along with the disks, the cave drawings had been dated at around 12 thousand years old... 10,000 years B.C."

It goes on and on, but what does Awareness have to say about that story?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that it appears the story, as told, was being told as fact, and was indeed fact as clearly as the writer understood things to be. The evaluation of the disks and their meanings was quite factual and relatively well deciphered. It appears to be genuine. The potential for error in deciphering of course is always part of anything of this nature, but in general, the information appears to be quite well-documented and interpreted.

This Awareness indicates this appears to be a reference to a time back in the era which Zecharia Sitchin spoke of in his description of Sumer and some of the earliest civilizations. The messages may have in fact made reference to some of the same types of entities who were present in Sumer at the time of Zecharia Sitchin's focus when he described Mesopotamia and the Euphrates region as being inhabited by people and extraterrestrials working together.

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

The entities were described as having bulging heads and puny bodies. Isn't that somewhat like the description of the Greys?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative; it also is somewhat like the description in the Zecharia Sitchin pictographs from Sumer. This Awareness indicates that the large heads and smaller bodies simply suggest a race of people that have been for some time using their heads and not their muscles; that over a long period of time the human body has changed toward this direction.

In the Neanderthal creature, the human body was much larger and stronger and the heads in comparison, would appear to be smaller, when compared proportionately to the modern-day human. Most humans today have much smaller bodies than the Neanderthal, and yet the heads are of equal or greater size.

This Awareness indicates that the reference could also be made to portray the writer's perception of those aliens. For example, if the aliens were wearing helmets, the entities writing about them might think the helmets were part of the head and describe them as having large heads. This Awareness indicates this assuming of course that the writers had not yet had time to realize and get acquainted with the aliens without their helmets when they began their writing.

This Awareness indicates this would be rather unlikely; that the writing is more likely to follow after things had settled down and the entities had become more acquainted with the aliens in that time period in the region near Tibet.

Breathing Exercises For Use If an Oxygen Shortage Occurs

QUESTION:

A question from William Leigh who writes: "In view of recent articles on the forthcoming oxygen shortage, I wonder if it would be in order to suggest to the membership breathing exercises that would increase one's efficiency for extracting oxygen from the thin air."

Does Awareness see that as a valid idea, and if so, what kind of exercises would we suggest?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that entities can build up more oxygen in their system through more deep breathing and through activities in which they move, such as in walking or swimming for approximately 20 minutes; that this can be beneficial in helping to improve the oxygen level in their system. This Awareness indicates however, that this is not a way of substituting for oxygen content on the earth. This Awareness indicates that in reference to the increasing of oxygen in general, for one's personal health, deep breathing and aerobics-type exercise, including walking, swimming, bicycling and such, can be beneficial in helping to increase the oxygen level in the blood and in the cells of the body; that there are also those benefits from the antioxidants such as Vitamin C, SOD, RNA, Selenium and such, others as have been previously mentioned.

Eating Fresh Vegetables Provides Oxygen to the Body

This Awareness indicates that in taking in fresh vegetables, one also can increase the oxygen content in the body; that the body naturally produces certain enzymes from the eating of vegetables that can be able to produce more oxygen within the system. This Awareness indicates that an entity may also wish to bring in house plants, but it is best not to have house plants in your own bedroom, because they take oxygen at night, and will rob you of some of your nighttime oxygen. Normally, they produce oxygen, which can be helpful in your home.

Swimming With Dolphins (More Hype Than Satisfaction?)

QUESTION (VIKKI):

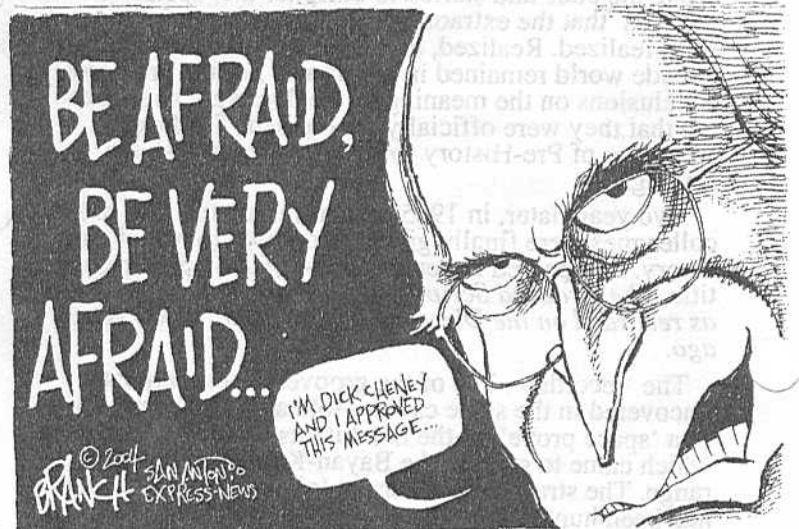

Awareness, I'm unclear in relation to my dolphin encounter. After much effort, I got a half an hour in with them, got to stroke them and swim with them, but didn't get the specific mental messages I've heard others recount. Will this filter through later, or what did or didn't connect? And does this account for my feeling of sort of being burnt out on dolphins now?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that your expectations were far too great for the reality that was encountered. If you had been living in the vicinity with dolphins over long periods of time and spent time with them, it is quite possible that there would be more of a sense of affinity with them, and you might have been more open to receive from them, not because of the general mundaneness of the contact, but because it was so highly significant and required so much energy and attention and struggle to get there, and because the time was so limited, you were very intense and intent on receiving some kind of clear and strong message in terms of a psychic message, even verbal in nature.

The message of love, which you encountered was not what you expected. The playfulness that they exhibited was not personal enough, because your expectations were beyond that. This Awareness indicates that were there to be mundane encounters day after day, there could be those rare experiences in which you become so close and so familiar with a particular dolphin that it sees you as its friend and you receive feelings or vibrations from it that are designed strictly for you as a kind of recognition of you; that this is not that easy to encounter, when the dolphin is seeing a different face every two or three minutes and never sees the face again.

This Awareness suggests you not feel rejected by these dolphins. It was a typical workday for them, and they had much to think about, entertaining so many, and meant nothing personal in not showing the full attention which you expected. This Awareness indicates however, that there was that essence of the dolphin's love and playfulness which, if you reflect on (it) you can find great comfort and warmth.

WHAT IS COSMIC AWARENESS?

COSMIC AWARENESS is the Force that expressed itself through Jesus of Nazareth, the Buddha, Krishna, Mohammed, Edgar Cayce and other great avatars who served as 'Channels' for the 'Heavenly Father' and who speaks again today as the world begins to enter the 'New Age' of spiritual consciousness and awareness. Since 1963 Cosmic Awareness has been communicating through carefully trained channels. This information is for those who desire to help in bringing in the New Age. Throughout the thousands of 'Readings' given through these various channels, Cosmic Awareness tells us not to believe anything, but to question, explore, doubt, and discover for yourself, through your own channel what is the truth. Cosmic Awareness will only 'indicate' and 'suggest'. Neither C.A.C. or any of the Interpreters is responsible for anything Cosmic Awareness states in any of these readings, nor does C.A.C. or the Interpreters necessarily agree with the statements of Cosmic Awareness. The Interpreters interpret the energies as they see them in trance levels and are not personally responsible for what is said. The Interpreters published herein have no connection with, nor control over the editorial comments and material, including illustrations. This is entirely the responsibility of the editor. Members of C.A.C. are invited to send in questions of general interest to ask Awareness for possible publication in this newsletter.

How Much Power Does the President Have? (Who Really is In Control?)

QUESTION:

Some questions from JD of Liverton, Vermont, is how she wants them printed. It's really Judith Jones of New York, who takes a very intellectual approach to the information we put out. I'm going to read her questions, although Awareness has covered some of this, because some of these same questions are coming in from other members since the Hot August Night issue particularly, went out. She writes: "Let's dig out the real dirt. How much power does the president have? Isn't he just a figurehead? Do the same people control both Republicans and Democrats? Just who are they, and how do they control so vastly?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates the elected officials are generally controlled by the funds that are contributed to the campaign during the election year. This is where the question of whether they will be elected or not is settled. This Awareness indicates that if a Congressional candidate does not receive sufficient funds, he or she cannot campaign well, therefore, the lobbyists who contribute to the campaign or the individuals who contribute to the campaign are very important in terms of the entity's career.

This means that once the entity is in a position to do something for the lobbyist and those who are heavy contributors, they are inclined to remember who helped put them in office, and this weighs heavily on their votes and activities in terms of their duties and choices as Congress-persons or in the elected office, whatever it may be.

This Awareness indicates that of course, most of the action of a particular individual elected to public office are viewed from the point of view as to whether it will help in his future elections, his or her future elections, in terms of his or her credibility to the constituents or individuals whom he or she represents.

If he sees himself as a conservative, believing that the conservatives are of greater number and will vote him in, then he will be more inclined to please this larger group. If the entity sees this group as waning or dwindling in number and sees that a more liberal approach would win more votes, then many of his or her actions in the public office may take on a more liberal attitude.

Those Who Hold Power Over the Entity In Power

This Awareness indicates that the power, in other words, is directed to appease those who hold power over the entity in his position of power. This Awareness indicates that in the case of some entities who hold great power, they will often support different sides as example, Nelson Rockefeller in the 1976 election supported Gerald Ford, while David Rockefeller supported Jimmy Carter, which meant that which ever of the two won the election, either winner was still indebted to the Rockefeller powers, to the Rockefeller brothers.

This Awareness indicates that understanding this helps entities to better realize that even if the elections are fair, the powers that influence the elections may have greater impact than the number of voters involved and the elected official may be more concerned about the monetary base behind his campaign than about pleasing the people whom he or she represents.

This Awareness indicates that once a president is in power, the entity has a certain amount of influence and prestige that goes with the office. It may not be enough to override the votes and power of an entire Congress, but proportionately, the individual acting as president will have more power than any one individual in Congress acting alone.

The Congressional composite or group of entities of course, may act in such a manner as to override a presidential veto, but a president can veto and override many different opposing Congress people and still win because of his unique position as president. Therefore, many who argue that the president can do nothing because Congress is reluctant to work with the president should also realize that it goes two ways; that it's not a single one-way action.

If the president is not friendly and cooperative with Congress and if Congress objects to the president's policies or programs, they may renege or hold back in terms of cooperating and vice versa. If the president cannot find good working conditions with Congress, then the president may not be cooperative with Congressional bills and policies and may veto them, keeping Congress from passing or doing its job.

This Awareness indicates that it is unclear as to whether this explanation is what the questioner sought in the question. It appears there may have been something different that this entity was driving at.

ON FORGIVING MISTAKES: (80-8)

"...Recognize the divinity within yourself that forgives and allows you the right to make mistakes."

Who Are the Real Controllers?

AVATON:

I think basically it is in reference to the controllers, just who are they? And how do they control so vastly? These same people that seem to control both the Republicans and Democrats, year after year.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be mostly the financiers that hold the power of the purse, who can make or break a candidate by giving or withholding money from his or her election, but also, there are those who hold positions of influence. There are those who hold position of influence in the media or in political levels who can persuade many powerful people to turn against someone, or to turn in favor of someone. This Awareness indicates that the Bilderbergers are a powerful group of individuals who can have much to offer or can withhold their blessing and thus determine whether an entity runs for an elected office successfully or has little chance. The same can be said of other powerful influential forces: the Zionists.

The Perpetual Influence of Zionist Jews

This Awareness indicates that for example, there was a time when the entity Annenberg would need to be consulted for some entities to have any chance of seeking public office, and with this entity's blessing they would recognize that they could have a great chance of winning public office.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, the same is so with other powerful lobbying groups or organizations. In some cases the conservatives, who are highly organized may have their particular agenda that they wish promoted and if they can find a candidate they can trust to help promote the agenda, and who still has a possibility of winning, they will put their support and money behind that entity and that entity will have a great chance of winning.

The same could be said for the so-called Liberals. This Awareness indicates that there are many blocs or power groups that help to bring votes and money for public elected officials and these power brokers and financiers are the ones who generally hold much of the power and distribute the power to the elected officials, and these entities help to determine the course of events and the tone of the political year.

Every 16 Years There is a Party Change

This Awareness indicates that approximately every 16 years there is a switch in the tone, wherein for 16 years, the more liberal type of influence prevails and then for approximately 16 years, a more conservative approach prevails. This Awareness indicates that it has been approximately 16 years that the conservative cycle has prevailed and it appears that there will now be approximately 16 years of a more liberal cycle.

The more liberal cycle intends to turn attention toward social needs of the poor and the less fortunate, and the more conservative cycle tends to turn attention toward the activities that help to promote greater wealth with the idea that the greater wealth among the wealthy helps to create jobs for those who are in need of jobs.

This Awareness indicates that there is a tendency in the conservative cycle to reduce any generosity toward the needy and to focus more on generosity toward the wealthy, to help them become more wealthy so that they can effect jobs for the poor. This is the argument and belief that by promoting greater wealth among the wealthy, the poor will be helped.

It is not always so in practice, and this can be seen presently in that there are so many unemployed and so many who now live on the streets, so that in the last 16 years, a greater number of poor people in society have been put out on the streets whereas before, the wealthy of society were not given so much assistance in furthering their wealth, but there were not so many poor people on the streets.

This Awareness indicates that the cycle which now comes will again favor those less fortunate for a period of approximately 16 years.

What Is The Power Structure of the US?

(The Medellin Drug Cartel and Organized Crime)

(George Bush's Lucrative Drug Import Business)

QUESTIONS:

JD's next series of questions, I'll read the questions and repeat any Awareness asks, as it all sort of blends together, even though it gets into other areas. Some of this Awareness has probably already answered. "What is the power structure in this country? How is it organized? How powerful is it worldwide? How does it interrelate with power groups in other countries. Wasn't the Medellin drug cartel attacked primarily for financially challenging the supremacy of the US power group? "How do the organized crime "families" interrelate with all of this?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that the Medellin cartel being the drug lords for much of the movement of drugs into this country, did for many years work in cooperation with the CIA and with certain individual who had connections with the CIA and who are now in higher positions.

How George Bush Brings Drugs Into the US

This Awareness indicates that the Christic Institute has done much research on this and it is well documented from many different sources, not only through the Christic Institute but through others, indicating that the entity George Bush, when working with Zapata Oil was involved in creating a drug-line or drug route for the Medellin cartel through Panama, using Noriega and through the Zapata Oil offshore wells, using steel drums to carry the drugs for shipment into the United States and for disbursement throughout the country.

There are documentations on this. There have been other entities involved that have testified to this and it is not a secret that as CIA director, George Bush was involved in this kind of activity prior to becoming president. This Awareness indicates that these things do not generally make the main news media or headlines, and that unless one searches and knows where to search, much of this information remains as more or less underground news or underground information, but there are many articles from magazines that have investigated these various links which allow the information to be presented so that it is not mere speculation.

Why Bush Had to Kill Noriega

Names are given, dates and details are made available. This Awareness indicates that such information can help to explain why it was necessary to send troops in order to capture the entity Noriega, particularly after he had stated that unless George Bush left him alone, he would write a book. This Awareness indicates that this was a real threat, for if this entity began writing a book, the information he could give would be enormous.

This Awareness indicates that the drug cartel is not a major political power in this country; it is a considerable political power. It is something that is strong and

She Asks About Dan Quayle

(Awareness Says They Also Laughed At the Young Hitler)

AVATON:

I think Awareness has dealt with that. Her next question is: "Who would ever trust Dan Quayle to be the head of anything? Ten years heading up this Nazi group? He's just a kid! Where would he get such power? From his dad? The guy's an utter mental midget! He's too dumb to head up a street-sweeping team, much less something of this magnitude. Ask Awareness about Dan Quayle."

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness would remind you that when Adolf Hitler first joined the Nazi party he was quite a young artist. Having been a corporal in World War 1, he was seen as a nobody. And as he began to rise in importance in the Nazi party, making speeches, the world looked at him and laughed: "He looks like Charlie Chaplin!" They considered him a clown. Who would take this man seriously? No one took him seriously, yet he persisted and he continued, and before long, he was in charge of Germany and Germany was rebuilding.

Germany received money from George Bush's father to rebuild and from the Rockefellers and from Henry Ford, and they built their war machinery for World War 2 during the 1930s and then, in 1939, Hitler's speeches became more war-like than ever, more threatening than ever, and his famous "Bomb will be met by bomb" speech was followed by an attack on Poland, and World War 2 had started.

George Bush Indebted to Dan Quayle

This Awareness indicates that there are many jokes related to Dan Quayle. They make the man seem harmless and yet, do you really know the entity? This Awareness indicates that after George Bush left Zapata Oil he was given a job in Quayle Laboratories, the pharmaceutical company by Dan Quayle's father, and thus became indebted to the family, and this was one of the main reasons for choosing Dan Quayle as his running mate. This and the fact that they are remote relatives.

George Bush's Nazi Link Through Skull & Bones Society

This Awareness indicates that there is also that connection of George Bush's father with the funding of the Nazi party prior to World War 2 and the Skull and Bones Society in Berlin and George's involvement with the same at Yale University, which may indicate a connection between the two through some Nazi link. This Awareness indicates that there may be more than meets the eye between these entities that brings them together.

George Bush a Black Magician in Ancient Atlantis

This Awareness indicates that it has been indicated previously that George Bush was one of the great black magicians in ancient Atlantis and that his re-emergence into power at this time offered him a chance to come back and do it right. In the Atlantis experience, his actions led to the destruction of the continent of Atlantis. He was not alone. There were 12 others with whom he worked. These may well be the same as the MJ-12 group, or the MJ-12 group may be a modern parallel of the 12 black magicians of Atlantis from 12000 years ago.

George Bush is also now in charge of that MJ-12 group, and this Awareness suggests that it is possible the entity may have the opportunity to do it right this time around and avoid the karma that he could repeat from the earlier life and accumulate a more positive karma for his future lifetimes. Therefore, this Awareness does not wish to categorize the entity until he has proven himself one way or the other.

powerful. The mafia also has its influence. Religions also have their influence. And the lobbyists and corporations and the banking industries and the munitions industries; all of these, along with other super wealthy groups and organizations have powerful influence.

It is not so much that there is a flow chart that one can look at in the same way a corporation may have a flow chart showing who's in charge here, who's in charge there, and where the power goes as it goes down the corporate ladder. It is not this way.

This Awareness indicates that when Ronald Reagan was in power, he was a member of the Bohemian Club and many of those entities in the Bohemian Club held considerable power under his administration, or held influence over the administration of Ronald Reagan. This Awareness indicates that with George Bush in power, it is quite different. Those who had special connections with the Bohemian Club are not particularly important in the George Bush administration.

But entities who had special position in the CIA under George Bush or during his time as head of the CIA, and those whom he worked with in political levels in the past may now have special influence, or special place with him. This Awareness indicates that likewise, those Bilderbergers and financial tycoons who donate or pay money for his re-election, these entities who are benefiting from his presidency may see this administration as important to them, and give money to it, and thus, they may hold power, or they may gain power from the administration.

This Awareness indicates in others words, it does not simply reside with the government as a kind of pattern or flow chart; it changes. There is a constant power struggle between groups and individuals in this country as with many other countries, to gain power, to gain political power. This Awareness indicates that at times, there will be a greater influence from the Jewish lobby or the Zionist factions. At other times, the Nazi influence may be strong.

Nazi and Fascist Movement Alive In the U.S. Today

This Awareness indicates that during the past several years, the Nazi influence in this country has gained great momentum and strong influence in the government. The Jewish influence has been weakened during these past several years. This Awareness indicates that ideally, when the powers are able to offset each other to prevent excessive power from being given to any one group, the country is generally well balanced.

At the present there is a fascist tendency. Fascism tends to increase during times when the conservatives are strong and weaken during times when the liberals are strong. The more liberal influence is generally stronger when the Jewish influence is strong and is generally weakened when the fascist influences are strong.

This Awareness indicates that either extreme can be damaging to the principles on which this country is built, and therefore, one extreme of too much government, or the other extreme of small amount of government but strong fascist rules and harsh dictatorial approach; either can be quite damaging to the freedoms and creativity that has been essential in the building of this democratic society of today.

This Awareness suggests that the next question may be asked. If this has not answered her question then the question may be repeated or clarified further.

Hang in their gang. It's only 6 years until 2010! Your vibration is moving higher each day. Don't fight it!

This entity may turn to the Light and do the right thing. It is still too soon to know. This Awareness indicates however, the evidence thus far, does not suggest this as having yet occurred and the evidence thus far ties him closely with the similar forces that operated in the earlier experience.

This Awareness indicates that the Atlantis god known as Bael was none other than the modern demi-god known as Adolf Hitler; that these were the same entities. This Awareness indicates that from this, you may begin to see connections in regard to the repetition of history and you may begin to recognize the potential for changing that pattern of history.

MJ-12 Group Has the Power to Save Earth or Enslave It

This Awareness indicates the MJ-12 group has the opportunity to change the pattern of history to free the earth from controls by aliens, or it has the opportunity to deliver the earth or to attempt to deliver the earth to the control of aliens.

This Awareness indicates that there will be other factors involved, just as there were other factors involved in the Atlantis event, and the continent of Atlantis sunk and the Atlanteans moved to Egypt to try to regain power there, but there were those from the Caucasus mountains in Russia who came down to Egypt.

These entities came from other than the earth. These were Pleiadians and Arcturians and Vegans who came to earth to set up a new structure and to create a new civilization, and those Atlanteans in Egypt who tried to restore their hierarchical power in Egypt were unable to do so, and they fell from power, and that group which later became known as the Great White Brotherhood, which is not really a proper name for these extraterrestrials, set up its own hierarchy system, to teach the masses and to spread the concepts and ideas of a greater humanity throughout Europe and Asia and Africa.

The New World Order Will Not Prevail—Earth Will be Restored

This Awareness indicates that today there are also certain extraterrestrial influences from Vega, Arcturus and the Pleiades, and also from Lyra, all of whom will play roles to influence the changes in the coming times, so that these mad dreams of a third or fourth World Reich, of a New World Order based on Nazi concepts of a 4th Reich will not prevail, and that the earth itself will not be turned over to these sub-human extraterrestrials, the Reptoids or Greys; but will be restored to those human types with the help of the extraterrestrials from Vega, Arcturus, Lyra and the Pleiades.

This Awareness indicates that the destiny for the human race is toward spiritual evolution, not toward physical slavery, even if such spiritual and physical slavery must occur for a short period in order to awaken the consciousness of humans. The destiny still lies in the spiritual awakening.

This Awareness suggests the next question be asked.

How Elections Can Be Rigged

AVATON:

"I'll read this, but I think it's in error. She says: "Is CA saying, is Awareness saying that Clinton and Gore will not, under any circumstances be permitted to win this election?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness has not given this indication. It has suggested that the election can be rigged. This Awareness indicates that the way the elections can be rigged is through the counting machines and that these machines have been created so that one vote for one individual can be transferred to the other at a rate of one in every ten votes, which would amount to a maximum of twenty percent.

Election of Clinton Would Foil Hot August Night Plot

In other words, if one vote for Candidate A is transferred to Candidate B out of ten votes, there is a twenty percent shift or cheating factor. This Awareness indicates that it would appear that what has startled the powers at this time is the fact that Clinton has much more than twenty percent edge on George Bush in the polls at this time, and this has created considerable concern that he might carry the election, which would throw the plan that has been indicated as "Hot August Night;" it would throw that plan off entirely for Clinton to be the one who is elected.

Therefore, this is another obstacle which may be an influence toward the canceling of the "Hot August Night" plan. This Awareness indicates that obviously, the gap between Clinton and Bush that now exists in the polls will close considerably between now and election time but still it is enough of a gap to create serious concerns among those counting on Bush's re-election for their plan to work.

Polls Can Also Be Rigged

AVATON:

She wonders: "What if the polls show populace something like three to one in their favor? Wouldn't it be overly suspicious? And is there no independent local assay of votes?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that normally, the polls can also be rigged and the votes can be rigged so that they correspond to one another without too much conflict. This Awareness indicates that most polls are controlled by those professional poll-takers who can be manipulated just as any other large corporation can be manipulated if it becomes politically crucial to do so.

This Awareness indicates that of course, the polls are not usually taken that close to election time anyway, and things can be effected near election time to create major changes so that anything showing up in the polls would appear to be altered by events which then show a difference in the election.

This Awareness indicates it's a hypothetical question. If the election were three to one opposite of that shown by the polls, indeed it would create extreme doubt and raise many questions. The questions would be whether the polls were right or whether the vote counts were right, but this Awareness indicates these are only hypothetical. There has not been an election showing polls indicating a three to one landslide of one candidate and the election of the other candidate, showing that candidate winning three to one. It just hasn't happened.

This Awareness indicates anyway, the vote-counting machines do not create that great a difference, to where the count is so extremely lopsided.

Why the Virtual Blackout on News of the UN?

QUESTION (AVATON):

In regard to the UN she writes: "Aren't UN troops collectively national troops on loan or some such, and if these forces have such control of the UN and its forces, then why has this country had a long-standing virtual black-out on news of the UN?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the question be re-asked; that it does not appear clear as to who some of the pronouns refer to.

AVATON:

Okay. The first question then. "Aren't UN troops collectively national troops on loan, or some such?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that in response to the first question, they are national troops from different nations. They may be loaned by Germany, they may be loaned by Canada, they may be loaned by some Eastern European country or by some African country or by some European country or South American country, depending on who is in charge of selecting which country loans the troops. They may even come from South Africa or Israel, or one of the Middle East countries. Continue.

QUESTION CONTINUES (AVATON)

"If these forces have such control of the UN and its forces, then why has this country had a long-standing virtual black-out on the news of the UN?" (Now, she's dissecting the reading on the Hot August Night and I think that when she refers to forces, she's referring to the Nazis.)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness suggests that the last line of her question be repeated.

AVATON:

"If these forces (we'll say Nazis) have such control of the UN and its forces, then why has this country had a long-standing virtual black-out on news of the UN?" (That might be invalid. I don't think we've had a black-out on news of the UN. that's stated in the question.)

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that It does not follow the reasoning. This Awareness indicates that the influence in the UN of certain individual, not only within the UN, but from different countries including the United States, can have its effect on troops in such a manner that these UN troops put on loan, are selected according to the choice of those who have the greater influence. In other words, countries having strong influence may insist on Canadian troops or on South African troops or on Yugoslavian troops or some other group of troops that are represented by a country in the UN.

This Awareness indicates the question: Why has there been a black-out?; this part of the question is unclear. It does not see this black-out as having been made clear. What is meant by "black-out"?

AVATON:

Maybe she's referring to the video that was shown on July 4th in California, where it showed the intense ferocity and inhumanity of the UN troops. I believe one of the examples was blowing off the head of a baby or something. Perhaps she's referring to that as a black-out because we didn't see any of that on television.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

The television station simply would not play that kind of film. It was not simply a matter of government black-out, it was policy of television stations not to show that kind of violence and particularly not to show it coming from UN troops whom you are suppose to hold in high esteem.

It would be much like showing Americans creating atrocities in Vietnam during the Vietnamese war. These things are never shown on television. It would not be acceptable to the American public or to the government or for a television station to do so, and most entities running television stations would not want their license taken from them for doing such.

This Awareness indicates It does not fully understand whether her questions have been answered according to her wishes. It did not fully understand her questions.

Would Media Cover Atrocities of UN Troops?

(Playing Tic-Tac-Toe and Other Atrocities of American Troops)

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

Would the print media also decline to print any adverse information like that of the UN troops in Africa doing atrocities?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that depends on the print media and their own policy and reputation. Most major newspapers would not touch such a story. Atrocities occurred in World War Two, in the Vietnam War, in the Korean War, and many of these by American troops. This Awareness indicates if you speak with veterans who were there, who were involved in these atrocities, you would find that there have been horrendous atrocities created by American troops in those areas that were never spoken of in the United States press.

This Awareness indicates that there were entire villages wiped out in Vietnam, just to test weapons, to see how well the weapons worked. This Awareness indicates there were games played with prisoners wherein two prisoners would be taken into a helicopter and the first prisoner would be asked a question, and if he did not answer promptly and quickly, he would be dropped out of the helicopter.

The second prisoner would then be asked the question with the threat that he too would be dropped out of the helicopter. The entities in the helicopter called the game "Tic Tac Toe" because they would try to drop the prisoners on certain squares on the ground below to mark a line or create a pattern that these bodies would hit.

This Awareness indicates this kind of action would be classed as atrocities if done by any other army against Americans. This Awareness indicates that these atrocities are not shown on television, are not presented on radio, and are very seldom, if ever, put into print. In some rare occasions they may find their way into select books in which entities tell of the horrors of war.

Nazis, Deros & Greys In Shamballa?

(How Did Hitler Contact Shamballa Priests?)

AVATON:

One last question tonight. This entity JD has two more pages of questions. "How did Hitler and so forth make contact with Shamballa priests? Shamballa is regarded as either etheric and/or in any case, a holy region by Tibetans and esotericists. Who are these guys and why were they dealing with Nazis, Deros and Greys?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that Shamballa as being a opening into the cavern world on the Eastern side of Tibet, near China. That this is an opening into the inner caverns of the earth. It is not a sacred place as many might want you to believe. It is a place of certain power, wherein entities from the inner earth, not the middle earth, but the subterranean realms as described by Richard Shaver, and entities associated with Orion; the Greys of Orion have long had an activity of working together underground, where technology has been shared between these cultures.

There have been contacts; the Nazis made contact with these entities and Hitler was personally taken there by Rudolf Hess, who had made contact previously. This Awareness indicates that this idea of Shamballa being an etheric or mystical place is simply false. There are many who would like to think of it as a kind of Shangri-la, or Nirvana, a place of great mystery and beauty and great wisdom. It is a place of technology based on extraterrestrial technology, specifically from Orion, and on underground technology from the Deros and also, more recently, from technology used by the Zeta Reticuli.

These Questions Are Important

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the energies associated with these questions have allowed much looking, searching and discovery. It appreciates the thought that has gone into the questioning process, and this Awareness suggests that the further questions this entity has sent in be continued in a future reading. This Awareness indicates that this helps to fill in many areas that may still be unclear for others also.

This Awareness indicates it is important that entities ask questions on these areas so that there are not lingering gaps that leave uncertainty and excessive doubts.

Thank you. (The Law Of Gratitude is given)

WHAT GIVES MANKIND ITS STRONG URGE TOWARDS FREEDOM?

(Some Ways to Have a Relationship With God)

QUESTION:

A question from JD in New York. "What gives mankind its strong urge towards freedom? Is it genetic upbringing, or something else? If genetically engineered, then by whom, when and why?"

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there is of course some carryover in the genes of entities to be more demanding than might another with different genes experience, but this Awareness indicates the genetic aspect is a personal uniqueness for each individual. The question: "What causes mankind to have an urge for freedom?" relates to something beyond genes, relates to the very nature of freedom and the nature of mankind in general, what mankind is.

Mankind Is a State of Being

Essentially, mankind is a state of being, a state of consciousness made up of certain ideas. Why is it that some of the ideas of mankind seek freedom, while others in mankind's consciousness seek security and are willing to give up freedom for security? They seek to be protected, even at the cost of freedom. This Awareness indicates that some entities are willing to give up all security to preserve freedom, even if the freedom is only for others to enjoy. This Awareness indicates that for many entities it is essential that the mind have freedom to explore, to think without restriction. For others, they don't mind having their consciousness encased in a narrow rigid programming.

Some entities are quite willing to turn themselves over to someone, to let that someone put restrictions on their freedom of thought, to tell them what to think, to tell them how to think, to tell them what to do, and what not to do. Some entities want to be programmed completely so they do not have to take responsibility for their own lives because they are afraid of the consequences of making mistakes. They fear making mistakes, so they enjoy having someone else tell them what to do, and direct their lives, and if a mistake is made, it is not their fault. They feel they cannot be held responsible if someone else directs their life. How can they be held responsible if they have turned their life over to someone else? This Awareness indicates they have not thought enough to realize perhaps turning their life over to someone else and letting others make decisions for them, was in itself a great mistake.

This Awareness indicates much of this comes out of childhood experiences in which the child received punishment for making mistakes or was made to feel guilty for having made mistakes to the point where the child no longer wants the responsibility of doing anything without having someone else doing it for them, so that someone else gets blamed for any error that occurs.

This Awareness indicates that others are just the opposite. They have learned that they can't trust other people to attend their needs. They can't trust other authorities because other authorities have hurt them, have betrayed them, have made mistakes and even though they may have been innocent themselves, they still received the blame. Thus, these entities do not want others messing with their lives. They do not see that others have the righteousness that they would claim to have and they want their own freedom to make their own mistakes and they are willing to do whatever is possible to remain free from the confines of others, from the domineering of others. They want to make their own decisions based on their own judgment in their own effort to avoid mistakes, but if a mistake is to happen, they want it to be their mistake that they are blamed for rather than someone else's mistake.

Those Who Prefer a Personal Relationship With God

This Awareness indicates that these are people who are willing to take responsibility for their lives and do not care to escape responsibility by turning their lives over to someone else. These people tend to prefer having their own relationship with God rather than turning their relationship with God over to a mediator, a priest, a minister or some guru. This Awareness indicates that it is a matter of what entities have been conditioned to favor in their experiences dealing with taking on the responsibility for their lives and there are many who do not want to be held responsible for their own decisions, for their own mistakes. They want to turn it over to someone else who is an expert, or claims to be an expert, and let that person be held liable if there is error involved. They choose a priest, a guru, a representative of God in the same way that an entity might choose an attorney to represent his or her cause in a lawsuit.

This Awareness indicates that other entities would not even consider or conceive of using a representative instead of having his or her own relationship with God. They would not consider hiring someone who claims to be an expert to represent them to the Divine. They would instead want to have their own personal relationship with God. They cannot fathom having someone in between. It is a matter of preference; what is most comfortable to an entity. If you cannot fully trust God, then perhaps you can trust a mediator, a priest, a preacher, but this Awareness indicates there are many entities who would argue: "How can you possibly trust a priest or a mediator if you can't trust God?" and thus, the entity would prefer having his or her own relationship with God.

The other might argue "It isn't that I don't trust God! I just don't trust myself! And I need someone to represent me so that I don't make mistakes in my relationship with God!" This Awareness indicates there are many ways that entities approach the various problems in their life and deal with these problems in ways that they have been conditioned to deal with, or in ways that are comfortable to them.

Raising a Rebellious Child

FOLLOW-UP (VIKKI):

I'm not sure what it means, when I was being raised, the people who raised me were very restrictive in a lot of areas, and I was able to cope with that until they started to tell me how I should feel and think about things, and that, I could not tolerate.

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates this is commonly referred to as being rebellious and you were probably chastised for being rebellious because you would not follow the directions of others as they attempted to mold your thinking. This Awareness indicates that in most cases such as this there will be in the entity's horoscope, the relationship of Uranus in conflict with Mars or Saturn, creating a sense of independence or rebelliousness. Some entities don't have these conflicts with Uranus, for Uranus is the planet of rebellion for most entities, especially when there is Square or opposition to Uranus by some major planet, and so many entities will want to be independent, will want to be rebellious against traditional or controlled influences, while others will feel more comfortable going along with authority, being told what to do, being led and being influenced by someone else.

This Awareness indicates that it is not a matter of which is right and which is wrong, in a moral sense. It is really just a matter of one's own make-up and conditioning. One can be conditioned to be rebellious or to be compliant and obedient. This Awareness indicates that It is not going to say you should overcome one or the other. It is simply a matter of preference. If you want to be compliant and obedient, then there are responsibilities that go with it.

A Follower Also Becomes Responsible for their Leader's Crime

If you become compliant and obedient and your leader or advisor is misleading you or improperly advising you, then you have to suffer the consequences for his mistake, or his error, because it becomes your mistake and your error for having followed and obeyed this entity.

This Awareness indicates there was an entire generation in Nazi Germany that followed obediently, and when the Nuremberg Trials came along, many of these entities were classed as war criminals, and they argued: "I was just obeying orders!" This Awareness indicates that it is true; they were just obeying orders, and they thought that their superiors would take the responsibility for the orders given. They were just obedient followers and felt they should escape any punishment, but that is not the case. Therefore, an entity who is a follower is also held responsible, even if the one who the entity followed is the one who gave the orders or directions.

This Awareness indicates that likewise, the entity who is independent, acts on his or her own, does not take orders for anyone, but makes a serious mistake will be held responsible for his or her own behavior and may not have anyone there to point the finger at and say, "It was his fault! He's the one who led me to do this!", because if the entity is acting independently, it becomes very difficult to find a scapegoat.

This Awareness indicates however, some independent entities will argue that "Well, I won't make mistakes! I'll do things the right way!" and indeed, many of these entities are very careful and do things the right way. They do not make serious mistakes. They act independently and they act wisely, and they have the right to retain their freedom and lack of blame because they have earned it. They have acted in a way that is responsible. By taking on their responsibility, recognizing what is responsible behavior, they almost assure themselves that their activities will be above criticism or above blame. This Awareness indicates it is all a matter of choice, whether you can handle responsibility or whether you want someone else to take responsibility and hope they don't get you into trouble.

Those Who Take On Responsibility For Others and Fail

This Awareness indicates there are also some who take on responsibility not only for themselves, but are willing to take on responsibility for others and some of these entities, taking on the responsibility for others violate those others by acting irresponsible with them or toward them. They may get their followers into trouble and blame them, while they themselves go scot-free and have no ties to the mistakes made by their followers. They in fact may have been the cause of the mistakes, but the followers get the blame.

This Awareness indicates likewise, there is the other side, wherein the followers misbehave and the leader is blamed for the misbehavior of the follower. It is likened unto the entity who goes out and uses drugs or gets involved in violent actions related to drugs and then is found to be a member of a small religious organization and the focus shifts from the entity to the religious organization and the religious organization is then blamed for the violence that occurred from the actions of the individual.

Should the Catholic Church be Held Responsible?

Many entities will side with the attack on the religious organization because they didn't like its philosophy anyway, but is the religious organization necessarily to blame for the behavior of its member? This Awareness suggests we look at this scenario with a different twist. Suppose this entity who was involved in a violent situation because of drugs was a member of the Catholic Church. Would the Catholic Church be held responsible for its member?

At this point entities will say "No! You can't hold the Catholic Church responsible for the action of one of its members! There are millions of Catholics! They don't all behave that way!" Well, perhaps the smaller church that was originally blamed in the first hypothetical case couldn't keep track of its members either. Perhaps they didn't have enough leadership to follow around to make sure that all of its members were behaving properly. Perhaps one could argue that the Catholic Church has more priests, and they should be able to keep all their members in line. This church has no priests and has only a few people in the leadership roles and they don't have enough people to go around checking on their members to make sure they behave properly.

This Awareness indicates you will see many instances in newspapers where small cults will be blamed for the behavior of a member that goes awry, becomes antisocial or does something against society. Is it proper for the organization to be blamed for the behavior of one of its parishioners? This Awareness indicates that of course it could be held responsible if the church or cult teaches such irresponsible behavior, but if it is not something taught by the church or cult, if it is not something promoted by the church or cult, why should the church or cult be held responsible for the behavior of one of its members just because the entity came to a meeting or paid dues to join the church or cult?

Perhaps that is all that occurred, and the entity had no real connection with the church or cult, or perhaps the entity was not influenced by the teachings of the church or cult. This Awareness indicates that in most cases, if the church or cult is small and the entity is involved in some antisocial act and it is discovered that he or she is a member of a certain unpopular or unknown church or cult, then the church and cult will be defamed by the member and his activity.

This Awareness indicates however, if the member is part of a well-known, well-established traditional religion then the religion is not held responsible for the behavior of the entity. How many times do you read about an entity who was involved in some criminal activity, where the newspaper prints that he was a Baptist, or the he was an Episcopalian, or a Catholic? How many times do you read about an entity who was involved in a criminal act and notice that the newspaper referred to him as a member of a "such and such" cult or a "such and such" group, which is a small unknown religious organization?

"Anti-Government" Literature

AVATON:

The media does the same thing on these raids when they list, "Found in the cabin was anti-government literature!" They don't say that there might also have been Time magazine and the New York Times, but they find 'anti-government literature'.

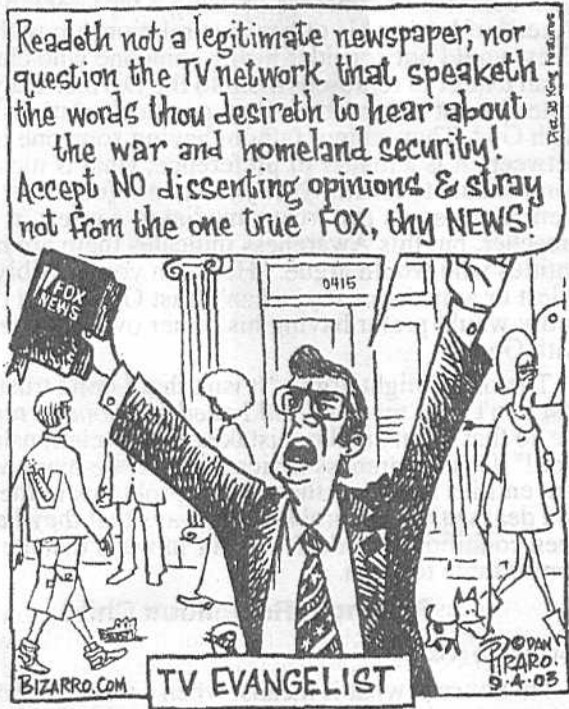

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This is in the affirmative. The anti-government literature may simply have been some flier that was sent to the entity through the mail by some organization that is promoting the use of survival goods or storage or survivalist foods or something of this nature. This would be classed as anti-government literature in some cases, for the government is opposed to entities storing food for survivalist purposes.

This Awareness indicates it could also be political articles by Russ Limbaugh that were found and this could be classed as anti-government literature. This Awareness indicates it could even be articles by Ralph Nader in which he criticized something the government is doing with large corporations and was critical of such connection, and this could be called anti-government literature.

You Can't Accept Newspaper Stories as Being Accurate

This Awareness indicates that you cannot accept newspaper stories as being accurate for there tends to be a great amount of inaccuracy in the reporting of most stories in most publications. They will touch on the truth and have some connection with the facts, but the slant is what often is totally misleading. This Awareness indicates that sometimes it is extremely distorted and entities who know the situation recognize the distortions as being gross, but those who are not familiar will read the article and think they understand the situation because of what was written, even though it was in fact personally misleading.

WISDOM OF AWARENESS:

ON REINCARNATING AND PREJUDICE

Each entity, when reincarnating upon this plane, is potentially capable of reincarnating into any race, whether this be Oriental, Indian, Jewish, Gypsy, Black, Caucasian or the Brown race, or of any Latin culture.

Any entity has the potential of reincarnating into any culture, any nation, any area, and any status of being, whether of poverty or wealth; the potential as determined by those needs which will give the entity the greatest spiritual growth, according to their ability to grow.

It behooves entities not to plant seeds of hostility toward any particular race, culture, status or nation, for indeed they may return to live a life within the skin of that culture which they have directed hostility towards.

'THAT'S IT. WE'RE RETIRING TO NEBRASKA.'

THE BOHEMIAN GROVE RITUALS

QUESTION:

Awareness has given information in the past on the Bohemian Grove get-together; that it essentially was, if I remember correctly, a place where the powerful of the world get together and have a retreat. On July 24th of this year, we happened to catch a program called Evening on the television, which featured an entity who claimed that he worked inside the Bohemian Grove and he has written a book about it, which may or may not be released, but he was immediately hassled and audited by the IRS, it said, and he made the statement that in this grove, where 200 of the world's most powerful people meet, that there was rampant alcoholism, passing out, prostitutes, much homosexual activity, and the interesting thing, which is basically the question, that it opens with a huge ritual with thousands of candles and robed figures. Could Awareness comment on that please?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that this appears to be accurate in its description. Generally, this has been referred to as the Bohemian Club. It generally takes place in a grove in the woods. This Awareness indicates this usually in the Northern part of California, in or near the Redwoods. This Awareness indicates that there are those who gather from various parts of the world to come to this setting in order that they may talk to each other freely and become acquainted with each other; that there is a kind of brotherhood involved in this. This generally is limited to men except in the case of prostitutes.

This Awareness indicates that this club as that which forms a kind of brotherhood in which these entities pledge a sort of allegiance to each other to assist each other, to stand by each other, to keep each other safe from outsiders. It is much like many other Clubs except that because these entities are of such influence and have so much power, it is of considerable concern or should be of concern because the entities can have tremendous influence on affairs of the world, and what they do and what they decide in their commingling with each other is not always for the good of humanity, but is almost always for their own good, for their own benefit as a group and as individuals of the group.

This Awareness indicates that this is but one of a number of clubs or groups, but most of these entities belong to other powerful clubs or groups, such as the Bilderbergers, Council on Foreign Relations, and other organizations, and therefore, there is much interlocking between these various groups. This Awareness indicates the entity Ronald Reagan as one who belonged to this Bohemian Club. This Awareness indicates that the entity George Bush is seen as having belonged to a group known as the Skull and Bones; this from the Yale college era.

This Awareness indicates that there are certain benefits these entities receive from being involved with their various groups, particularly in terms of their associations with entities who are or are to become powerful figures, and who at later times may help them in reaching their political ends and purposes. This Awareness indicates that of course, many entities involved in such groups do not achieve or seek political purposes; they have business ambitions or other ambitions, and can participate in certain benefits or receive certain benefits from those who have business ties or political ties who are also somehow associated with these clubs or other members of clubs that network together.

No Chance to Become President if Not in the Club

This Awareness indicates it makes it so that the average person who does not belong to some strange club does not really stand much chance of ever becoming President, even though they may be fed the riff that anyone in the United States has the chance to become President. This Awareness indicates that generally it is only those who participate in some secret political group or secret clubs who have the support of these clubs sufficient to help them rise in business, rise in political clout, or rise socially, so as to reach prominence enough to ever move into a position that might in some way eventually give them an opportunity in the area of politics or business in these more prominent levels.

This Awareness indicates of course, local entities have opportunities for political offices, even the entity who has ever belonged to a club at all could perhaps become the local dog-catcher or some other local office might be open depending on the entity's personal ability and charisma and social support from locals of a community. This Awareness does not wish to give entities false hopes that they could somehow run from such local offices into the higher political offices and move into these levels without some kind of support from clubs, groups, or such as the Bohemian Club, Freemasonry, or other similar groups.

FOLLOW-UP (AVATON):

There were no Satanic overtones or invocation of Dark Forces for protection or anything of that nature in the ritual that they did at the Bohemian Grove, was there?

COSMIC AWARENESS:

This Awareness indicates that there was; there is a certain degree of the homosexual element using certain occult energies and forces to perpetuate the pursuit of power through certain rituals that were used. This Awareness indicates that this did not involve all of the entities in that club, but some of the entities belong to such organizations and groups as those which participate in occult witchcraft and Satanic activities. It is not seen that all entities present were involved in this kind of activity, but that certain elements went off into their own areas for certain rituals.

The club itself does have certain ceremonies using candles and using certain types of rituals that are not necessarily occult or satanic in nature, but use certain principles that may be associated with metaphysics which are neither seen as negative nor necessarily positive, except that they are more of a unifying nature. The use of lighting candles has many symbolic meanings. The club as seeing the use of these candles as each entity bringing his light to the group and adding to the power of the group; this being essentially the symbolism of that purpose, The hoods being symbolic of keeping their identity secret in terms of their group identity, and in hiding their identity with(in) a group, these entities then symbolically may take off their hoods and robes and go out into the world to do their thing. It is not necessarily occult, but it is metaphysical in the symbolic sense and has a metaphysical ritualistic purpose.

This Awareness reminds you that even monks of a Catholic order may use candles and hoods. The use of candles and hoods alone, does not imply Satanism. This Awareness indicates however, there are among these wealthy individuals that attend, certain elements or certain individuals who have connections in regard to witchcraft as well as Satanism, but this is not a requirement of the Bohemian Club.

Satanism: The Energies of Ahriman

CLOSING MESSAGE:

This Awareness indicates that the energies that are associated with that known as Satanism, which has been mentioned previously by this Awareness as the energies of Ahriman, which this Awareness forewarned of some time back, as that which is surfacing at this time, is being brought out into the light of consciousness and is that which shall become a more open concern among the masses, so that it can be dealt with in the Light of Consciousness, where it becomes much more vulnerable to truth. So long as it can remain hidden, there is little that is possible in terms of affecting it, but it is now being opened for consciousness to be aware of.

This Awareness does not ask that entities need to do anything other than be aware of the energies of Ahriman, the energies of that which is known as Satanism, and the nature of its essence. It is a kind of cruelty that needs to be given attention. The very act of being aware begins to defuse its power. Being attentive and taking notice of it begins to weaken it, to make it less of a force. This Awareness indicates that the action of attending, of focusing, of being attentive and aware of something brings it into harmony, brings it into balance, thus, anything negative, when given attention, without judgment, without the feeling that something must be done; just the act of being aware can help to reconcile that polarized energy.

This Awareness does not mean that entities should do nothing, but there are times when an entity can do nothing, but the very action of being attentive is doing something, even though it may not appear (to be) so. This Awareness indicates that as entities become attentive to something and hold their attention, that focus that recognition, that realization, allows a channeling of that knowledge or information to spread into mass consciousness and mass consciousness then, as a light, becomes aware of that negative force. It is very difficult for a negative force to act when it is portrayed in the full light of consciousness.

This Awareness indicates if entities wish to do something, the best action, other than being attentive themselves, is to call the attention of others, so that they too can be attentive and aware. This Awareness suggests the Interpreter be brought from trance.

Wisdom of Awareness...

The Most Important Question

This Awareness indicates that from the view of this Awareness, the most important question that any entity can ask, and of course it only has to be asked by one entity, because it is a question for all entities; the question being: "What am I here for?" This Awareness indicates that any entity in asking this question can ask it for all humanity. This Awareness indicates that this is not in reference to a particular occupation for an entity. It is a question: "Why is any entity in existence as a being, and what is the purpose of such existence?"

This Awareness indicates that of course, the answer is simple, and the answer is universal. This Awareness indicates that entities are here, wherever "here" is, to express their own Divinity and their association with the Divine energies of the Creation. This Awareness indicates that by being one with the Divine, entities are experiencing and expressing Divinity Itself. You are here to be One with God. That is your purpose. What you do as One with God doesn't matter. It matters for you to be One with God.
